

LEARNING TIBETAN LANGUAGE PROGRAM

Saturday Basic Tibetan Conversation

with Tulku Jigme Lodro Rinpoche

Learning Tibetan - Lhasa Dialect

Saturday, April 4 – May 16, 2009 (2 – 3:30 p.m.)

The above guidebook can be purchased online at www.amazon.com

Location:

14905 Coles Chance Road
North Potomac, MD 20878
Phone: 240-238-1903

To register, please send an email to vietnalanda@ymail.com
Please include your name, address, phone number.

Suggested donation:

$60 total for 6 sessions

Donation checks can be payable out to:

Viet Nalanda Foundation
(Memo: Tibetan classes-Lhasa).

All donations will be offered to Jigme Rinpoche at the end of the program.

Walk-ins are welcome.

Scholarship is available upon request

Please kindly email in advance.

There is no class on April 11

TASHI DELEK !

Please come join us for a 1-1/2 hour of fun and useful basic Tibetan conversation- Lhasa dialect with Tulku Jigme Lodro Rinpoche. This is a pilot program and we will be happy to make necessary adjustments in the future in order to help provide everyone with a conducive learning environment. We will be using « Learning Practical Tibetan » as our guide book. Supplemental hand-out materials will be available as well. Please bring paper, pencil, a recorder and a comfortable sitting cushion.

Jigme Lodro Rinpoche was born in 1969 in Golok-Dhomo of Tibet . He was recognized as the reincarnation of Genyen Dharmata. It is said that Genyen Dharmata was the server of the sixteen arhat principal disciples of Buddha Shakyamuni, and was himself a realized master from the Alasha Monastery at Five Peaked mountain of China..Jigme Lodro Rinpoche was recognized by Chakshul Tulku Sangye Lodro and Doctor Gyarong Samdup Gyatso only three months following his birth.

He had studied Sutras, Tantras and Tibetan culture and religion. After that, he became well-known for his qualities and knowledge. In 1998, he came to India and became a great editor in both the Tibetan-in-exile government and the private editing centers. More than two hundreds of his essays had been published inside Tibet and outside in the Tibetan-in-exile communities. Some of his books were published by acclaimed publication centers of the Tibetan government-in-exile including the Department of Education, the Department of Information, as well as the Tibetan cultural and religious publication centers. His writings were well-respected and complimented by many great scholars. H.H. the Dalai Lama had sent Jigme Rinpoche a letter praising him for his writing. In 2005, H.E. Trulshig Rinpoche also recognized and declared that he is indeed the reincarnation of Genyen Dharmata. In accordance to that, in the January of 2005, H.H. Drubwang Pema Norbu Rinpoche, the throne holder of the Nyingmapa lineage, had enthroned Tulku Jigme Rinpoche in Bodhgaya in India in January of 2005. Currently, Jigme Lodro Rinpoche is compiling additional historical accounts of the Nyingma schools and the Tibetan culture and religion. He is aspired to establish a research center in India called the Ngayur Nyingma Research Center to begin work on the Chronicle Treatises of the Nyingma lineage, as well as a Nyingma Lineage Comprehensive Dictionary.

Tuje' Chay ! We look forward to seeing you.

This program is sponsored by

Viet Nalanda Foundation www.vietnalanda.org

Viet Nalanda Foundation

Tibetan-Buddhism for Vietnamese Vajrayana Buddhists